Did You Know??

Canadian Thanksgiving is the same day as Columbus Day Oct. 10th. The origins of Canadian Thanksgiving are more closely connected to the traditions of Europe than of the U.S. Long before Europeans settled in North America, festivals of thanks and celebrations of harvest took place in Europe in the month of October. The very first Thanksgiving celebration in North America took place in Canada when Martin Frobisher, an explorer from England, arrived in Newfoundland in 1578. He wanted to give thanks for his safe arrival to the New World. That means the first Thanksgiving in Canada was celebrated 43 years before the pilgrims landed in Plymouth, Massachusetts!

Looking For A Good Book?

It always seems to be a challenge to find a book that will spark your child's interest in reading. Mr. Simoneau has kicked off his assignments of book reports for the year.

Periodically, I will publish some of these reports so the students can show off their writing skills. Writing book reports challenges a child to read and also helps them with writing skills to communicate what the book is about.

The following is by Grace Solemsaas, daughter of Guy and Wendy Solemsaas and a fifth grader at MLS-Sherwood. The book is "Runaway Twin" by Peg Kehret.

Sunny is a 13 year-old girl who lives in a foster home. She has always wanted to find her twin sister Starr. Sunny finds a bag with $820 in it. She decides to use the money to find Starr. She changes her looks, and goes on a bus. She gets off the one bus and gets on a school bus.

She finds a stray dog, and names it Snickers. She gets bullied by a clique. Sunny and Snickers realize they are facing a tornado. They find Randy, one of the bullies, in a pile of rubble. Snickers got hit on the head with a branch. Sunny gets in a car and goes to a Red Cross shelter. She hires a taxi driver to take her to Washington, and leaves Snickers with the taxi driver. Starr is angry to see her; she doesn't remember anything about Sunny. Sunny called Rita, her foster mom. Rita buys a plane ticket for her to come home in one week. When Sunny got home she realized that she is happy where she's at.

Great job, Grace!!
